

Income Exemption for Start-up Farm Businesses Farm Property Class Tax Rate Program

Property tax year: 2024

For new farm businesses (start-ups): If your gross farm income was less than $7,000 in 2022, you may apply for an exemption from the requirement to provide a Farm Business Registration number. To be eligible for this exemption, you must meet the following criteria:

- You have started or plan to start a new farm business that will enter the market for the first time and generate a farm income as defined by the Canada Revenue Agency.
- The new farm business has filed (or will file) income taxes and can provide documentation to validate farm income and expenses.

Section A: Who is farming the property?

Select one of the following:

Property owner

In Section B, provide roll numbers for all properties owned and farmed by you.

Tenant farmer

In Section B, provide roll numbers for properties you farm that belong to one owner. If you farm properties that belong to different owners, complete a separate form for each owner.
